

Risk

Management

Framework

Risk Management Framework (RMF)

nib's RMF sets out our structured approach for managing material risks across the Group. The RMF is a combination of both formal and informal elements including risk management systems, structures, policies, processes and the people operating them.

