

Date Friday 19 June
Subject NSW Origin players visit fans at Erina Fair

nib health funds (nib) is inviting rugby league fans from across the Central Coast to head to Erina Fair Shopping Centre today at 5pm to meet some of the stars of the NSW Aussie Blues State of Origin team.

The team is currently based on the Central Coast in preparation for Game Two of the Harvey Norman State of Origin Series at ANZ Stadium in Sydney on Wednesday night (24 June).

Joining nib, a major sponsor of the NSW Blues, will be Glenn Stewart (Sea Eagles' grand final hero), Michael Weyman and Justin Poore (from the ladder leading Dragons) and Joel Monaghan (the Raiders' winger) who was drafted into the team yesterday following the withdrawal of Michael Jennings through injury*.

The player appearance will take place near the entrance to The Atrium food court area from 5.00pm.

Fans will have the opportunity to chat to the players, get their autographs and receive plenty of giveaways.

 The players that will be attending may change subject to the team's schedule.*

For further information:

David Taylor
Media Manager
National Rugby League
0405 228 974

Jessica Morrell
Communications Manager
nib health funds limited
0438 650 302