

Information Sheet

Ending your cover

When you finish your assignment or leave your employer, you may no longer be eligible for cover provided by nib in Australia as part of your UnitedHealthcare Global plan.

How to terminate your cover

Your employer will manage your policy termination on your behalf at the end of your assignment or your employment. nib will be advised of your assignment end date and your policy will be terminated. You will receive a termination letter from nib confirming that this has occurred.

Maintaining nib cover

If you know that your assignment is ending or that you are leaving your employer and you wish to remain with nib, you can transfer to an individual level of cover and pay the premiums yourself. You should contact nib for a quote as soon as you know your cover will be ending.

For Australian residents

nib is able to assist with transferring you and your family to compliant health insurance cover, helping you to address taxation concerns such as the Medicare Levy Surcharge and the Lifetime Health Cover Loading. For more information or to obtain a quote for nib cover, please visit nib.com.au or call us.

For international visitors nib is able to assist with transferring you and your family to one of our International Visitors covers, to maintain visa compliant coverage for any continued stay in Australia beyond your assignment. For more information or to obtain a quote, please visit nib.com.au/ovhc or call us.

Important:

In order to maintain continuity of cover and avoid re-serving any waiting periods, there are strict timeframes in which you must establish an individual policy. Please visit nib.com.au to view our fund rules.

Please read this in conjunction with your product fact sheet and other relevant information that you would have received in your nib welcome email.
